HEAVY RAIN FALLS THIS AFTERNOON

Albuquerque and Surrounding Country Soaked by Downpour: Raining in Various Parts of Territory.

A soaking rain fell in Albuquerque and vicinity between 12:30 and 1:30 this afternoon, justifying the weathermen who had been predicting a downpour for the last several days. Reports from up and down the Rio Grande valley are to the effect that heavy rains have fallen at various times since Sunday. For the last three days it has been raining in intervals in the Estancia valley and the ground in that part of the country is thoroughly soaked as the result of the precipitation.

Efforts are being made to organize a ladies auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers for this city. The charter meeting has been started and the wives, sisters and mothers of firemen and engineers are eligible as candidates. Eighteen ladies have already signified their intention of joining the auxiliary and it is likely an initiation will be held in the near future.

LOSE TO ESTANCA

Special Correspondence to the Herald.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 13.—Estancia baseball team, accompanied by a large crowd of fans, came down for a game with the Hubs Sunday afternoon and won the day to the last minute. The score was 2 to 2 and easy money at that. The young men went home feeling better than they have for a year since the last game. The feature of the game was the pitching of Johnson for the visitors. The batteries—Estanca Johnson, Cumber, Willard, Peck and George, opposed Pickens and Chevay. Next Sunday the Hubs are scheduled to play the Breezes at Mountainair.

CORHAN IS NATURAL BORN BALL PLAYER

Hugh Edmund Keough, Sporting Editor of Chicago Tribune, gives "Blue-eyes" send-off.

In a letter to a personal friend in Albuquerque Hugh Edmund Keough, sporting editor on the Chicago Tribune, has the following to say about "Blue-eyes" Corhan:

"The crowds cheer Corhan when he is making errors. It is his manner that wins. He is learning to bat and will never be out of the big leagues again. No wonder he was popular in the Albuquerque games. He is just a natural baseball player."

Keough is known as "Heik" in the Tribune sports paragraphs, and takes a shot at Corhan every day or so, boasting the Albuquerque lad along.

EASTERN SUNDAY PEOPLE PASS THROUGH CITY

Delegates En Route to San Francisco Are Entertained in Albuquerque: Travel in Palatial Train.

THREE TRAINLOADS TO GO THROUGH TOMORROW

Albuquerque, N. M., and the effects were drawn together more closely today than ever before when 50 delegates to the International Sunday school convention in San Francisco made a stop of four hours in this city, being royally entertained during that time by the Commercial club and the citizens of Albuquerque. For the most part the delegates are distinguished people and the favorable impression they received in Albuquerque and its people during the brief stop here will do much to counteract the belief prevalent in some parts of the east that New Mexico is still wild and woolly.

The delegates upon their arrival here at 1:15 were met at the Santa Fe station by President Simon Stern, Secretary T. J. Naylor and P. R. Schenckter, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Commercial club. The delegates were escorted to the Alvarado hotel, where they had luncheon after which they were shown through the Harvey car and museum. Later the visitors were shown through the city in automobiles. Before departing the delegates gave three cheers and a tiger for Albuquerque and the Commercial club and individually and collectively expressed themselves delighted with the treatment they received here. Resolutions expressing the appreciation of the parts were also adopted, the Commercial club receiving several grand bouquets for the entertainment provided.

Frank W. Lund of Boston, passenger agent of the New York Central lines, is in charge of the train and Traveling Passenger Agent G. A. Hogan, Jr., of the Santa Fe met the party here and accompanied it west to the Grand Canyon. Three more trains of delegates are to arrive tomorrow, stopping an hour or more each. They will arrive at 1:30 and 2 o'clock. All will stop at the Grand Canyon.

The party started from Boston Friday and is traveling for Chicago to the coast in a splendidly equipped special train, a duplicate of the California limited—sleepers, a dining car, an observation car and a new composite car.

Santa Fe was reached this morning, A. P. Robinson, secretary of the New Mexico C. S. Union, met the party at the station with Charles E. Laney. The sights of the oldest American coastal were seen at the closing feature of the stay was a reception at the state dinner at Glorieta. Willows made an address setting forth charms of New Mexico and renewing the efforts for statehood.

En route from Chicago the party stopped over Sunday at Kansas City for rest and worship. Monday excursions were conferred at Hutchinson and Dodge City, Kan.

It was a town site at Dodge City Superintendent H. A. Tice of the Santa Fe went to Hutchinson with Mrs. Tice, who as vice-president of the Kansas Sunday School association, and secured the party to Dodge City. The band was at the station playing stirring selections when the train stalled in the Sunday school children of the town in their brightest array added to the musical feature. A committee of citizens escorted the party to automobiles and after a ride through the town a meeting was held in the Christian church, the finest local auditorium. Every business house in Dodge City closed during the two hours' stay of the party and when the train pulled out of the station there was hearty cheering.

The membership of the party is distinguished in its personnel. It is not large in numbers. It includes eminent business and professional men, jurists, lawyers, educators, authors and other sundry school leaders.

M. W. J. Hartshorn, Boston, publisher of the "Modern Preacher," and chairman of the executive committee of the International Sunday School Association, Mr. Hartshorn, a prominent business man of "The Big Nine" devotes nearly all his time to the organized Sunday school work. He has been International chairman since 1902 and is also first vice-president of the World's Sunday School association. He is accompanied on this trip by Miss Bertha Hartshorn, Miss Eva Z. Pritchard, and by his secretary, Mr. George W. Peirce.
